

*image taken at the proposed TMT site, April 2nd, 2015, my daughter to the left. Also in the picture, myself (her mother), Elston (her father), Clare Loprinzi (the midwife who helped bring her into this world), and numerous Aunty's and Uncle's whom she loves and adores.

In this picture, I was 11 years old and my mom went up to the TMT proposed site along with other aloha aina warriors. I remember walking up with Pono, Leimakamae, and Kalamaku to the site. I remember seeing my mom locked arms with everyone aside her and didn't say a word. She showed a serious and strong 'ano. This was a very intense time for me that took place because I remember seeing the DLNR officers approaching my mom which left me in tears. I felt very hurt because I didn't want my mom to be arrested and taken away.
